Janaina Mello Landini (Brazil, 1974) lives and works in São Paulo. She graduated in Architecture in 1999 and studied Fine Arts from 2004 to 2007, at the Federal University of Minas Gerais (UFMG), Brazil. Her body of work incorporates her knowledge of architecture, physics and mathematics, with her observations about time. She works using different medias and scales, from site-specific installations in public spaces to small canvases. Her work has been exhibited in Brazil, Colombia, Peru, Italy, The Netherlands, France and United Kingdom; and is part of several private and public collections, both national and international.
